AND THE ROOM TRADERS WERE FORCED TO COVER.

Northwestern's Earnings Showed Handsome Increases and the M. Coalers Increased In Price-New Jersey and Reading Stocks Heavy Atchis -Accumulations of Money.

New York, Dec. 4.-Today's stock market was left almost entirely to the room traders, and they seemed disposed to depress prices during the early part of the session by short sales. Their effort met with but little response, and they covered before the close, bringing prices in most cases slightly above yesterday's close. The movement of prices was, however, trivial through-out the day, except in a few special cases. Manhattan reflected the auxiety cases. Manhattan reflected the anxiety of those who had bought yesterday under the mistaken idea that the underground rapid transit plan had been declared unconstitutional. Heavy offerings at the opening sold the stock down a point, the lowest of the day. The close was near the low point after a full recovery in the meantime. All sorts of rumors were afford regarding the stock, and the dealings in it were at times guite feverish.

RAILEOAD EARNINGS.

Chilengo & Northwestern showed a degree of strength on account of its large percentage of increase of earnings for the fourth week in November. Susquehaning & Western continued to rise in price, and Delawaro & Hudson of the coal group symmethized, but New Jersey Central and the Roading stacks, on the other hand, were heavy. The day's news, so far as it was regarded, was favorable, statements of the fourth week carnings that were published showing large earnings and continued in the control of the fourth week carnings that were published showing large earnings and

ACCUMULATION OF MONEY.

The increase in cash was not suffici-The increase in cash was not sufficient to cover the increased requirements of the legal reserve caused by the heavy increase in deposits, and the consequence is still further declines in the surplus reserve. There has been nothing in the requirements of the money market during the week to account for the expansion of $2,476,500 in the loars, and it is probably due to borrowing on exchange. This is a part of the somewhat complicated operation, simple result of which is to leave at interest abroad money which has accumulated there on credit, instead of drawing on it by exchange high. It is destinated that over $10,000,000 for foreign exchange has been allowed to accumulate in this city during the week. eign exchange has been allowed to ac-cumulate in this city during the week, and the fact that prices of exchange have not been materially lowered shows that it is withheld and the money loaned abroad.

INVESTMENT BUYING.

There is a continuance also of investment buying of long exchange in anlicitation of the usual naturn movement of trade after the first of the year. Although the imports of general marchaedise at this port for the week show a sharp falling off, the receipts at the custom house indicate a growth of the import movement during November, which buyers of long exchange expect will increase still further as the stacks are worked off which were imported in anticipation of the taxiff law.

The reactions have now however, wiped out all gains, and the week showed net gains between 1 and 2 points in many leading shares and exceeding 2 points in some. The rise of Tuesday and Wednesday was due primarily to the aggressive and confident buying of a combined influence. But the factors which induced a large following were the factorable railroad statements and the statements in general of gross carnings for the fourth week of November. The free offerings of stocks on the advances shows the disposition to await the shaping of policies by congress before buying securities to hold.

TO PASS THE CROWD.

All Cannot Be Brilliant, No Matter How Healthy.

How Healthy.

It probably comes to every thoughtful person at times that there are plenty of common, mediocre people, and that if one determines to, he or she can press to the front, pass the crowd and win position, fame and gold. It is largely a matter of determination and health. Many a determined character with brilliant possibilities is held back by ill-health. Some find that bright, keen thoughts refuse to come to their brains, and wonder why.
